FOOTBALL BOYS ENTERTAINED

Lewis Academy Team Were Guests of Miss Taylor.

CHRISTMAS WEDDINGS

And Dinners Were Features of Last Week's Society Events

The football team of the Lewis academy with a number of their friends, was handsomely entertained last Tuesday evening at the home of Col. and Mrs. Taylor, corner of Second Street and Lawrence avenue. The event was arranged by the daughter of the house, Miss Helen Taylor, in honor of the team's victory over the High School players, a short time ago.

The early part of the evening was spent in drawing animals on an improvised blackboard, and as much merriment was caused by the wild guesses as to the identity of the birds and beasts sketched, as by the ludicrous appearance of the picture themselves. Some, however, were of merit, and Wilbert Duncan was awarded a miniature football, as the prize for his effort.

Other guessing contests, games, conversation and instrumental music and college songs occupied the evening. At a late hour ice cream and cake were served; more songs followed, then all departed, feeling this was a splendid beginning of the school's happy holiday season.

Those present were: Misses Isabelle Barnett, Mary Braden, Marguerite Elliot, Mae Smith, Laura Lathrop, Anita Wood, Jessie Conklin, Julia Conklin, Mary Lewis, Harriet Wells, May Howes, Stella Hattan, Ossie Bergman, Helen Taylor, Vera Miller, Messrs. J. C. Foote, Bob Houston, Hurst Sloan, Verell Reese, Lew Taylor, George Heining, Herbert Hatfield, Thos. Veatch, Wilbert Duncan, Douglas Stinson, Murray Ashbaugh, Dayton Higginson, Don Fordyce, Hiram Lewis, Col. and Mrs. Taylor, Mr. Albert Orr.

CELEBRATED SILVER WEDDING

The silver wedding of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Howard was celebrated at their home on the West Side last evening. There were seventy-five guests present to wish Mr. and Mrs. Howard twenty-five more years of happiness. The home was decorated with flowers, holly ferns and mistletoe. Mr. and Mrs. James Allison and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Dunn assisted in receiving the guests. After all had assembled the silver wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. J. W. Anderson, in a very comical manner. Mr. and Mrs. Howard entered the parlor to the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march and took their places before the pastor. Rev. W. H. Martindale and Rev. D. H. Switzer delivered charges to the groom and Rev. H. Waite and Rev. A. A. Parker spoke to the bride. Mr. H. J. Roy then presented the happy couple with a check on the Bank of Prosperity for $5 happy days. Refreshments were then served. Misses Nellie Waddington, Maudie Martindale, Walden Martindale, and Jessie Lyons assisted in serving. Many beautiful and useful gifts in silver were presented Mr. and Mrs. Howard in honor of the occasion.

Those present were: Rev. and Mrs. Anderson, Rev. and Mrs. Waite, Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Martindale, Rev. and Mrs. A. A. Parker, Rev. and Mrs. D. H. Switzer, Messrs. and Mesdames J. C. Dunn, G. N. Dunn, D. L. Green, William Shoemaker, H. J. Roy, James Allison, M. E. Bass, J. V. Wadsworth, D. O. Williams, E. Collins, Hutchinson, J. W. Kirkwood, D. Smith, Frank Means, Frank Fay, A. G. McCormick, C. K. Freeman, George Lyons, Ash Means, H. A. Hill, J. G. Charles, T. J. Van Arsdale, E. B. Grim, D. B. Dornell, G. E. Campbell, Ed Hill, J. R. Johnson, Mrs. Weaver, Mrs. W. H. Grey, Mrs. C. H. West, Misses Lizzie Hall, Louie Hall, Hutton, West, Patterson, Crawford, King, Waddington, Nash, Thomas, Fay, Martindale, Walden Martindale, Lyons, Pierce, Messrs. Albert West, Henry Stewart, Clarence Hutton.

TORREY-CULTER NUPTIALS

Miss Pearl Marguerite Torrey and Mr. Stanley L. Culter were married on Christmas eve at the home of the bride's parents. It was a beautiful home wedding. The house was gorgeously decorated with palms, evergreens, holly and mistletoe. At 8 o'clock the bride's sister, Miss Beatrice Torrey began to play the sweet strains of Lohengrin's wedding march and the bridal party moved to the rooms where the guests were assembled. First came little Jane Taylor Lynch bearing the ring in an American Beauty rose. She looked very sweet in her low necked dress and did her part admirably. Then came the bride and groom. They paused under the canopy, where Dr. Lynch performed the beautiful ring ceremony while Miss Beatrice Torrey played softly the sweet strains of Lohengrin during the entire ceremony. The bride never looked more charming than she did on this occasion. She wore a beautiful white silk moult dress with a long train and wore but a single hair ornament, a point lace butterfly. The groom looked very stately.

Not Only Relief; A Cure.

ASTHMA

Many discouraged Asthmatics who long for a cure or even relief lack faith in trying HIRSH'S CURE. It is impossible. HIRSH'S ASTHMA CURE is truly a grand remedy and possesses a virtue unknown to other remedies that not only instantly relieves but cures. The late Sir Dr. Morrell McKenzie, England's foremost physician, used HIRSH'S ASTHMA CURE constantly in his private practice. If you are discouraged send for a generous free sample. It will not disappoint you. HIRSH'S ASTHMA CURE is a standard remedy prescribed by many eminent physicians and sold throughout the world for over a quarter of a century. A truly remarkable testimonial in itself.

ly and handsome, in the conventional black. After the ceremony the happy couple received the hearty congratulations and best wishes of their friends. They received many beautiful and useful presents.

The next day the groom's parents entertained the bride and groom and their new relatives with a very sumptuous Christmas dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Culter will remain here until about the middle of January, when they will go to Pueblo, Colo., where they expect to make their future home, and they will take with them the best wishes of their many friends for a long and happy wedded life.

MILLISON-ARNETT NUPTIALS

On Christmas day at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Millison and Mr. Eugene Arnett were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. The wedding was a quiet one, only the friends and immediate relatives being present. The bride's sister, Mrs. Will Pearce, played the Lohengrin wedding march for the couple as they marched in and took their places. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. S. Sargent of the Plymouth Congregational church. After the ceremony a five-course dinner was served. The tables were beautifully decorated with them in holly and holly, bride's roses and carnations.

The bride is a graduate of Fairmount college and of the Emerson School of Oratory of Boston. She has been teaching elocution and has made a success in that line. Mr. Arnett is one of the wholesalers of the city, being in the wholesale business.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnett will be at home to their friends at their new home on the corner of Thirteenth and Fairview avenue. In a few weeks they will leave for an extended visit in the east.

GAVE MASK PARTY

The students of the Wichita Telegraph college gave a very pleasant party at the college on North Market street Tuesday evening. A great many came in masks, which were discarded late in the evening. Mr. E. Huff was awarded the prize for appearing in the most original costume. Miss Bertha Himmelwright was awarded the beauty prize.

Games of various kinds were the amusements of the evening. Later refreshments were served.

Those present were: Misses Emma Brown, Jesse Sparr, Nettie McIntyre, Nellie Mead, Mary Garlick, Cecelia Conner, Winnie Winters, Bertha Himmelwright, Minnie Carpenter, Estelle McAdams, Lorena Goode, Lulu High, Mesdames Davis and High, Messrs. R. A. Nighswonger, J. Albert Parker, E. L. Maudig, R. W. Douglas, Ben Green, W. N. Harvey, Arthur McIntyre, A. Huff, Chester Garlick, O. Z. Van Tyl, S. G. Hawkins, Edgar Meyer, O. D. Ault, Raymond Smith, R. C. Seudder, Ralph Coate, G. R. Joiner.

KINDERGARTEN CHRISTMAS

Miss Amelia Wiegand, director of the South Side Kindergarten, gave a Christmas party for her pupils at the kindergarten rooms at the Reformed church. A good program was rendered by the little ones and was followed by a short address by Rev. Griffith. The program was as follows: Song by school.....The Birth of Christ Recitation.....The Three Opinions Bernice Block.

Recitation—Why?.....Carl Paulin Song—Do You Know How Many Stars?.....The children recited the names of the stars in the constellation of the Little Dipper. School Recitation—If You Want a Merry Christmas Day.....Gladys Sexton Dialogue—What Little Boys Can Do.....Carl Paulin, Zimmerman Bryan, Howard Schwartz.

WRIGHT TRIES HIS HAND

Wichita Seer Tells What Will Happen Next Year.

A Wichita prophet sends his forecast for the year to the Eagle. It is as follows:

January—One of the world's greatest perennials will meet death at sea.

February—The flag of the nation will suffer a change.

March—The most important archaeological discovery ever made in Egypt.

April—The discovery of the greatest series of murders in the history of the world.

May—A riot in Europe which will force a great war.

June—The month without an event.

July—An event will take place which will be critical in the life of President Roosevelt.

August—Announcement of an invention which will revolutionize the traffic, the greatest event of the year.

September—Culmination of troubles in the Orient.

October—The discovery of gas within ten miles of Wichita.

November—A sign in the heavens.

December—The balance to the month of June, no great event.

Otto P. Myers, who is stenographer and collector for J. H. Turner, says the people on the West Side are going to keep kicking until they get West Side as avenue named to Seventh street. He says most of the property owners over there are signing a petition to the mayor and city council to have it done at once.
